

Holly Creek staff washes cars for Alzheimer's Association

Holly Creek Retirement Community workers who volunteered time to wash cars July 10 raised $400 for the Alzheimer's Association.

The employees, family and friends washed 40 cars in the retirement community in Centennial.

In addition, Holly Creek is assembling a team of residents, staff and family to support this year's Alzheimer's Association Memory Walk Sept. 18 in Denver's City Park.

A youngster pitches in, washing cars at Holly Creek Retirement Community, to raise money for the Alzheimer's Association.

Photos courtesy of Chuck Montera

It was a family event to volunteer, washing cars at Holly Creek Retirement Community to raise money for the Alzheimer's Association.